THE PROFESSIONAL VOICE

For Performers and Business Communicators

This course is designed to coordinate with The Working Film Actor workshop*

GINNY KOPF

PROFESSIONAL VOICE - LEVEL I: AUDITION, PREPARATION, AND VOCAL TRAINING

Mondays 7:00 – 10:00 PM 10 Week Session

This exciting and enlightening workshop is a must for all performers and business communicators. Participants will receive coaching on enhancing diction, reducing dialects, strengthening projection, expanding character voices, and improving vocal health. Individuals will be taught skills on how to focus on ones vocal image, voice-over technique, audition preparation, and singing potential for the beginner to the advanced student. These tips and exercises will improve your physical presence as well as free your natural voice.

A personal one- on-one instruction, in a class setting, to help polish your vocal potential and turn it into a viable commercial tool. Major emphasis on diminishing and eliminating native accents. Improve your diction, learn various dialects and develop various character voices.

PROFESSIONAL VOICE - LEVEL II: PROFESSIONAL TECHNIQUE AND APPLICATION

Sundays 6:00 - 9:00 PM 10 Week Session

Build upon the skills and knowledge gained in Level I. Polish your diction, tone, breathing, and inflection. Develop the skills to help reduce native accents. Participants will explore self-marketing strategies, rehearse formal and informal presentations. You will develop a personal awareness to strengthen your abilities and exercise your talents to be the best in your field.
